Mrs. Dimas, who has only recently arrived in this country, will superintend the education of the two children of the late Constantine G. Mascott.

The Philomathian club met with Mrs. J. W. Jackson of South Main street last night for their annual domestic science evening. A Swedish supper was served, the various dishes being in approved Swedish style and being greatly enjoyed because of their novelty. A short program was given after the supper. Miss Mildred Phelps played two Swedish dances and Miss Wheelock read an original story on the fireless cooker, which was very well written. Then Mrs. Carl Erickson of this city gave a splendid talk on Sweden, telling many interesting things in a delightfully entertaining way and adding greatly to the interest of the evening. A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Erickson, and the program closed with the Swedish anthem, played by Miss Mildred Phelps. The committee of the evening were Mrs. J. W. Jackson, Miss Evelyn Phelps and Mrs. W. E. Lazell.

Old Fashioned Horehound Drops

A fresh lot of them received just in time to nip a number of incipient coughs in the bud. Our Horehound Candy is the kind that has the real horehound in it—the kind grandmother used to make. Tastes far better than artificially flavored horehound candy and does something the common kinds cannot do—stops coughs. Excellent for hoarseness, rawness of the throat and other conditions resulting from the cooler weather. Any amount from a nickle's worth up.
